8 MORE THINGS TO REMEMBER WHEN YOU'RE CASHING CHECKS

(Ever see a check bounce? Sheriff Frank Bland's forgery detail has compiled a list of 22 things to remember when someone asks you to cash a check. This is the last of a series of three articles in which the Hi-Desert Star features these "check points"—Editor.)

15. Refuse post-dated checks and don't make any agreement to hold checks. Such checks cannot be successfully prosecuted.

16. Report rejected checks and/or suspicious persons promptly to the sheriff's office or your police agency.

17. Avoid out-of-state checks. Prosecution is difficult, sometimes impossible.

18. Be cautious in cashing checks on Friday nights, Saturdays, Sundays and bank holidays. Many professional check writers specialize in passing checks during hours that banks are closed to forestall verifying the account at the bank.

19. Don't cash pencil-written checks.

20. Be suspicious of rubber-stamped checks.

21. If possible, get license number and/or description of automobile used. Write this information on the back of the check.

22. KNOW YOUR ENDORSER. If you don't know the endorser POSITIVELY—DON'T CASH HIS CHECK.

Purely Personal

by MARK C. GREEN

We had a pleasant caller in the office Monday morning in the person of Ken Bonser, Yucca Valley's new photographer, engraver and a few other duties. Ken was delivering a few engravings we had ordered for a new magazine we are printing for a customer, the Standardbred Horse Review. The magazine is devoted exclusively to trotting and pacing horses.

Ken couldn't stay long, but we were very happy to be able to exchange a few words with him.

We hate to bring this up, but April 15, that horrible day of reckoning with the federal Internal Revenue Man is getting closer all the time. Not only are federal income tax reports due, but the state as well. No matter how I go about it, it's sure to wind up in a last minute rush.

Our mail brings letters, circulars, magazines and a thousand other items, all of which we have to go through carefully.

This last week we received a copy of a magazine published in Toronto and which is an out-and-out Communist publication. The magazine is full of pictures and stories of Soviet accomplishments, many of which are probably true. There are features on Red scientific advances as well as stories on sports, music, art and other cultural activities in the "worker's paradise."

The thing we objected to in the magazine was the constant harping on how "Russia is interested only in peace" and "has no designs on other nations."

Such statements are certainly not borne out by past actions of the Reds, particularly in Korea, Malaya, Hungary and many other points. We do not believe a war is imminent at this time, but unless this country keeps itself strong it could very well go the way of the many small nations behind the Iron Curtain, despite all the peaceful talk eminating from the Kremlin and its propaganda agents.

"Newspapers of California are an effective and low cost medium for carrying the company's advertising messages to our customers." This was the statement made by Harry L. Bright, assistant vice president of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., in testifying recently before the public utilities commission. "We use advertising," he continued, "to reach the public with information which helps to keep down our cost of operation which, in turn, helps to keep rates down."

School Principal Guest Speaker

Leon E. Hilton, principal of the Twentynine Palms Elementary School, will speak from the pulpit of the Yucca Valley Community Church March 16 and March 23 in the absence of the Rev. David Hansen.

Rev. and Mrs. Hansen, V. Ray Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Warner are planning to bring their Lifeline, Inc., missionary vessel, the Catalyst, down from Seattle in a trial run during this time.

The cruise will serve a twofold purpose: ship orientation and determination of further needs of the missionary endeavor, which will begin next year.

Hilton, whose theological degrees include ThD, has served in pulpits of various denominations and inter-denominational groups. Included in his pastorates have been Disciples, Presbyterian, Community and Baptist churches.

Motorists who stop on a highway or freeway should make sure their car is completely pulled off the road, the Automobile Club of Southern California says. An automobile which is parked on the highway or a portion of it may be struck by other vehicles, or may cause an accident by forcing others to cross the lane line in order to pass.

DAFFODIL SALE SET APRIL 4-5

The daffodil sale for the Twentynine Palms Art Gallery will be held April 4-5 this year, chairman Mrs. Faxon C. Lewis has announced.

Those wishing to help with the sale may contact Mrs. Lewis at FOrest 7-6851 in Twentynine Palms.

Read John 16:29-33

In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. (John 16:33.)

Some years ago, two of us were walking in the city of Nuremberg, Germany. A guide identified for us some of the historical buildings. He called our attention to the large St. Sebald Church. Over the door was a statue of Christ.

"You will notice," he said, "that Christ is there represented as a strong man; prominence is given to His strength. We like to think of Jesus as a strong Saviour as well as a teacher."

Thinking on this idea, I remembered that the power of Christ is available to each of us today, even in situations where there are problems too difficult for us to solve or burdens too heavy for us to carry. He promises us that He will be with us always, even unto the end of the world. He bids us not to be afraid of tribulations since He Himself has overcome the world.

PRAYER

We thank Thee, our Father, for the power offered to us in our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Help us to open our hearts to this power, that we may be able to withstand temptations and to be more than conquerors through Thy grace. We ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Surprise! Honoree Wasn't At Home

A surprise birthday party last week turned out to be a surprise on the surprisers as a group from the Community Service Club tiptoed up to Jack Ketchem's house and found that he was out—at a birthday party.

However, things were set right again when Ketchem returned and was amazed to see so many cars in his driveway and around his home.

He entertained his guests by showing them the presents he had received and later, all sat around enjoying music and talk.

Surprisers were: Ruth Lorenson, John and Nora Pearson, Berta LaFerney, Joe Lopez, Charles Miller, Ray Pratt, Hank Burghout, Clara Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. McDonald, Floyd B. and Edith Peters, Eunice Beaty, M. H. Duncan, Ethel Duncan, Theil and Eddie Duncan, Ernie Sanders, Mario and Myrtle Tripodo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welsh, Irene and Harold Wescott, Celeste and Hank Hollinger, Bob White and Harlo and Billie Hills.

Duarte-McCoy Nuptials Held In Yucaipa

Doris McCoy of Yucaipa became the bride of Dave Duarte, Jr. of Pipes Canyon and Yucaipa at evening ceremonies Feb. 28 in the Yucaipa Methodist Church.

The bride was attended by her sister Karen, who acted as maid of honor, and Kathleen Duarte and Loveta Amerson, bridesmaids. Best man was Wayne Lockwood. Ushers were David McCoy and Delbert Gallant; ring bearer was Rodney Miller, candle lighters were Gordon and Stephen Leslie and flower girl was Linda McCoy.

Dave is the son of Ruth and Dave Duarte of Pipes Canyon. He attended elementary school in Pioneertown and is a graduate of Twentynine Palms High School.

Doris is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. H.C. McCoy of Yucaipa. She is a graduate of Redlands High School and a member of the A-Capella Choir. She was given in marriage by her father.

The Rev. T. A. Miller, pastor of the Four Square Church in Yucaipa, officiated at the double ring, candle light ceremony. Mrs. B. Valentine was organist. Wayne Leslie sang "I Love You Truly," and "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

VFW Officials Attend JT Luncheon Meet

California's top brass in the Veterans of Foreign Wars organization was on hand March 9 as Joshua Tree Post 7264 held a luncheon meeting for District 22 members and the Auxiliary at the Community Hall in Joshua Tree.

Among the 97 members of the VFW and Auxiliary present were Al Fleming, state commander; B. C. Hesser, state senior vice commander and Roy Walliser, national aide de camp as well as several department appointive officers.

Fleming, in a presentation of citations to the local post, said that the state is well ahead of last year on membership and that if the trend continues, he would expect a record.

Citations presented were two from national headquarters and one from state.

Place cards at the table for distinguished guests were miniature wooden turtles in recognition of Post 7264's sponsorship of the National Turtle Races event, to be held June 20-22 this year.

PIONEERTOWN NOTES

By HESTER DOWNING

Well, we sure were fooled last week; just when everything looked like spring, we had our first snow of the season. After snowing most of the day Thursday and again Friday morning we noticed lots of youngsters, and a few oldsters doing fancy didos in the street in their cars, plus a few snowballs. But old sol made quick work of the two inches of snow on Friday afternoon. Sorry so many of the tourists who came up for the week end were disappointed by no snow.

J. C. "Scotty" Watt came home Friday afternoon from the hospital in San Bernardino. He looks fine and we are all very glad to see him home. We have missed him these past five weeks.

"Doc" and Jackie Schreader from down Beverly Hills way were up visiting in Rimrock this past week end. Doc and Irene Fox were having quite a bowling contest Sunday afternoon, with cheering from their spouses.

Dorothy Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cave, Gladys and Charley McClintock, all of Los Angeles, were guests of the Caves this weekend. Gladys and Charley bought the Don Kokx home here last fall and are busy moving in furniture so they can spend more weekends here. Gladys is sure proud of that new car, too.

Mrs. Vera Stoneham is visiting with her daughter in Coronado, who is recovering from an operation. Meanwhile, husband Bob, is busy with his new baby chickens, which arrived last Wednesday.

I had a minute's chat with Joan Hayes of Beverly Hills, who was here for the weekend. She was busy as usual, taking care of her places in Rimrock and Yucca Valley.

Tom Thompson spent Thursday and Friday in Lakewood at his daughter's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Santo of Los Angeles were visiting Mrs. Santo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bridge of Pioneertown this weekend.

Marine pilots landed on Guam March 17, 1921, marking the first time Corps aviation was deployed outside the continental limits of the U.S.

Base Volunteers Donate Blood

Civil Service and Marine volunteers at the base in Twentynine Palms last week donated blood in excess of the 200-pint base quota when the San Bernardino-Riverside "Bloodmobile" spent a day there.

Base units donating blood were: Field Artillery Gp., 1st and 2nd AAA Automatic Weapons Bns., Hq. and Service Co., MCB; 1st Forces Service Regt., 1st 75mm AAA Artillery Bn. and Hq. Co., Force Troops.

The station hospital medical staff and ladies from the wives clubs on the base assisted technicians from the Bloodmobile.

Chompin' Bits From Corral No. 46

Last Sunday, the Dusty Trail Riders, Corral No. 7 of Equestrian Trails Inc., put on their second gymkhana show up at Burnt Mt. Dude Ranch.

This show is gaining in popularity and certainly should be encouraged by all adults for the healthy recreation it affords young folks. A number of out of town visitors and riders were at the event and we hope they will be back, soon and often.

The grand entry included: Freddie Landgraf, flag bearer; Hal Van Nest, Dusty Trail Riders, sign bearer, followed by Buck Brown and his covered wagon.

Our candidate for Grubstake Days, Sylvia Mahoney, looked real sweet in her blue costume, riding along side Buck on the wagon seat. The event judges were club president Joe Lopez, Bill Pace and Hal Van Nest. Frank Windle gave the ribbons which were donated by Calvin Mann. The young folks placed as follows:

Boot Race: 1st, Freddie Landgraf; 2nd, Susan Berger, visiting from Corral No. 7, Banning; 3rd, Mary Parton.

Pole Bending: 1st, Freddie Landgraf; 2nd, Richard Flingerlan; 3rd, Susan Berger.

Keyhole Race: 1st, Judy Boldazar; 2nd, Freddie Landgraf; 3rd, Janet Parton.

Trade Race: Ist Judy and Richard 2nd place was taken by visiting riders. 3rd Susie Fowler and Freddie.

Baloon Race: 1st. Judy Boldazer 2nd Richard Flingerlan 3rd Freddie Landgraf.

Musical Ropes: 1st. Freddie 2nd Susie, 3rd. Richard.

Pickup Race: 1st. Judy and Richard 2nd. Janet and Mary Parton, 3rd by visiting riders.

Relay Race: Judy and Susie were a team as were Mary and Susan Berger, and Richard and Freddie.

When the events were over a few adults took horses and tried the Keyhole event. As the dust settled, Kenny Mercatoris was top man in that event. Rubye Whitaker MCd the event with her sound equipment. Though the day was chilly, all went well. —(Kit).

BAXTER HONORED FOR WRITINGS

David M. Baxter, former resident of Yucca Valley, has been honored by the American Divinity School for his contribution to Christian literature and theological writings.

Baxter, now a magazine associate editor, was formally presented with an honorary degree of Doctor of Literature by Dr. G. W. Hyatt, president of the college.

Former pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Yucca Valley, Baxter cooperated with other ministers in the area in forming the Yucca Valley Ministerial Assn.

Box Social Is Discussed

Plans for a St. Patrick's Day box social were discussed at the Yucca Valley Community Service Club meeting after a potluck supper March 3.

Arrangements also were made for a Work Day to finish repairs on the building.

It was also announced that the regular Wednesday night card party was to be held March 12 at Jack Ketchem's home on Bannock Trail.

Mrs. Edith Peters was added to the rolls as a new member of the organization.

BOYS AND GIRLS
HERE ARE
REDDY KILOWATT'S RULES FOR SAFE KITE FLYING

1. Don't Fly Kites Near Electric Wires.
2. Use Dry Cotton String.
3. Don't Climb Poles To Get Kites.
4. Don't Use Metal On Kites.

Here's a Message for Mom and Dad:

Your sons and daughters are taking advantage of the windy weather to fly their kites. Kite flying is fun, but sometimes tragedy can occur from this sport.

Reddy suggests youngsters keep their kites away from electric wires and television antennae and that they use dry cotton string — and never use metal on kites.

If kites get caught in a tree or on electric wires, leave them there. We're sure you'd rather buy another kite than take a chance on your child getting hurt from a fall or from coming in contact with electric lines.
